Message from Michelle

We gladly welcome Spring and the lovely warm weather that follows. It has been a really nice month for riding and adding new members to our HKS Family. ☺

We would welcome two new schooling horses, Malachi and Raven! Look for a profile of them next month.

We also welcome the WFU Huntseat Team who will be joining us for the 2009/10 season. They have visited for several lessons and look forward to an exciting season next year.

Thanks to Ken for clearing and making our new riding trail across the lake. It has been excellent to take the horses out for some hill work!

What's Happening at the K

HKS welcomes two new additions...!!

- "Minnie" or Hidden's Minuet by "Cocoa" (Nightsong Impression) and Jacket's Man of the Road. She is growing well and getting into lots of mischief!
- And as of May 2nd (last night), Miss Scarlet has birthed a colt named "Shadow" or Hidden's Midnights Shadow by Miss Scarlet and Jacket's Man of the Road. He is a large and strong foal with amazingly long legs!

The covered arena is completed and we are enjoying it on rainy and sunny days!

Due to so much interest, a third CAMP week has been added for July 27-31. Sign up soon!

Please take your heavy rugs home or sign up for them to be professionally cleaned. For $20 a rug, we can take them for you, but we need to know by May 10th.

Pony Club Update

Pony Club is all about building a partnership with our ponies, and this month was no exception. As the weather was incredibly warm, we took advantage and bathed loads of ponies after riding! Next month will be a big month. We will be having our first rating!! Our mock rating is schedule for the 9th, an unmounted meeting on the 13th and our rating on the 16th. Good luck to all of those who will be participating, and thank you to all the volunteers that make it happen.
